Contact time	3 lectures per week
Language of tuition	Both Afr and Eng
Academic organisation	Visual Arts
Period of presentation	Semester 1

Module content

This module examines some of the seminal texts and theoretical frameworks in developing the fields of cultural studies, visual culture and the "new art history". The texts of the leading theorists are dealt with. The issues will be illustrated with reference to the South African context where applicable.

Elective modules

Cross-media visual and digital scholarship 756 (VKK 756)

Module credits 40.00

Prerequisites Recommended: VKK 322

Contact time Blended mode

Language of tuition Double Medium

Academic organisation Visual Arts

Period of presentation Semester 2

Module content

This module exposes students to the latest visual and digital research methodologies such as the use of photo diaries, interactive web documentaries, film and video clips, social media sites, mapping, visualisation of data and other multimodal scholarship skills in order to present a research portfolio/dossier aligned with the topic of their research essay (see VKK 755). A three-tiered analysis of images across media is followed, namely the site of production, the image itself and the meanings negotiated in specific social contexts.

Visual archiving and curating 757 (VKK 757)

Module credits 40.00

Prerequisites Recommended: VKK 322

Contact time Blended mode

Language of tuition Double Medium

Academic organisation Visual Arts

Module content

This module exposes students to theories and practices of the visual archive with a specific emphasis on how the digital impacts on curatorship and archiving. Students present a research portfolio/dossier, aligned with the topic of their research essay (see VKK 755), of a selected curatorial strategy within a visual archive that may include film, posters, magazines, newspapers, television, video, visual arts, postcards, photographs. The strategies may include e-curatorship or digital curatorship, as well as other traditional curatorial activities and 'older' technologies.
