Admission requirements

- BIS (Multimedia) degree or an equivalent bachelor's degree, and an average of at least 60% in the third-year Multimedia modules and the third-year Computer Science modules. If the average for the third-year Multimedia or Computer Science modules is between 55% and 60%, the applicant's academic record will be evaluated according to the completion time of the undergraduate degree, the number of modules failed and the weighted average of each year.
- The departmental Postgraduate Committee reserves the right to make a thorough assessment of the applicant's academic transcript and to decide if the applicant may be admitted.

Additional requirements

Also consult G Regulations G.16 to G.29.

Other programme-specific information

Subject to the provisions of G Regulation G.18.3, a full-time student must complete his or her studies for an honours degree within two academic years (four semesters) and an after-hours student within three academic years (six semesters) after first registration for the degree. However, the Dean may, on the recommendation of the relevant head of department, extend the period of study in both cases by a maximum of two semesters.

A maximum of two modules may also be selected as electives from the other departments in the School of Information Technology.
