Module content

This module aims to develop students' skills which will enable learners to communicate as effectively as possible on a more academic level in isiZulu. Students learn to compare and contrast approaches to learning and teaching; identify and differentiate concepts used in OBE, NCS and CAPS; implement OBE by planning and preparing lessons using CAPS learning and teaching methodologies and techniques in an integrative manner; and assessing using CAPS assessment methods, tools and techniques.

The regulations and rules for the degrees published here are subject to change and may be amended after the publication of this information.

The General Academic Regulations (G Regulations) and General Student Rules apply to all faculties and registered students of the University, as well as all prospective students who have accepted an offer of a place at the University of Pretoria. On registering for a programme, the student bears the responsibility of ensuring that they familiarise themselves with the General Academic Regulations applicable to their registration, as well as the relevant faculty-specific and programme-specific regulations and information as stipulated in the relevant yearbook. Ignorance concerning these regulations will not be accepted as an excuse for any transgression, or basis for an exception to any of the aforementioned regulations.
